AUTHORSHIP

This publication was prepared by the staff and collaborators of the Hymenoptera Unit whose individual responsibilities were as follows: Introductory section and general editorial supervision by Karl V. Krombein * and B. D. Burks; Symphyta and Chalcidoidea by B. D. Burks; Braconidae and Pelecinoidea by C. F. W. Muesebeck; Ichneumonidae, Evanioidea, and Trigonalidae by L. M. Walkley; Cynipoidea by the late L. H. Weld; Proctotru- poidea by C. F. W. Muesebeck and L. Masner; Formicidae by M. R. Smith; and Aculeata by Karl V. Krombein.

* Now Chairman, Department of Entomology, Smithsonian Institution.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We are indebted to a number of our colleagues for furnishing information which has been included in this supplement. Their names and the groups in which they furnished information are as follows:

H. W. Allen (Ichneumonidae)
J. de Beaumont (Sphecidae)
G. Becker (Ichneumonidae)
R. M. Bohart (Vespoid and Sphecid wasps)
W. F. Buren (Formicidae)

Hymenoptera of America North of Mexico—Synoptic Catalog

(Agriculture Monograph No. 2)

SECOND SUPPLEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The "Hymenoptera of America North of Mexico—Synoptic Catalog" was published on July 11, 1951. It contained references to the literature published through 1949, and to a few papers that appeared during 1950. The First Supplement to this catalog was published on October 8, 1958. It covered the literature that appeared from 1950-1951 through 1956. The Second Supplement, which is presented herewith, includes the literature published from 1957 through 1963, and in some sections, most of the papers that appeared during 1964.

In general, this Second Supplement to the "Hymenoptera of America North of Mexico—Synoptic Catalog" preserves the form of the First Supplement. New supergeneric, generic, subgeneric, and trivial names are starred. Abbreviations and symbols agree with those used in the Catalog and First Supplement.

Additions to distribution, hosts, or prey, or corrections to entries in the Catalog or First Supplement are made following the citation to the generic, subgeneric, or trivial name as it appears in the Catalog or First Supplement. Additional references to papers on biology, distribution, or taxonomy are made in the same way. In the center headings the first page reference is to the Catalog, followed by a reference to the First Supplement, if the latter is necessary.

Generic transfers are shown as follows:

Genus CEPHALCIA Panzer, pp. 9-10, Sup. 1, p. 8

apicalis (Westwood). Transf. to Acantholyda subg. Acantholyda A. Costa.

ACANTHOLYDA subgenus ACANTHOLYDA A. Costa (= Acantholyda A. Costa of Catalog, in part, pp. 7-9)

apicalis (Westwood). Transf. from Cephalcia Panzer, p. 9 (teste Middlekauff, 1958, loc. cit. supra, p. 77).

When a species is transferred to a genus or subgenus different from the one in which it appears in the Catalog or First Supplement, all synonyms and other information under it are also transferred, unless indicated otherwise.

New synonymy is shown:

modesta MacGillivray. Syn. of pini Rohwer.

pini Rohwer.

Acantholyda modesta MacGillivray, 1923 (syn. by Middlekauff, 1958, loc. cit. supra, p. 85).

New status is shown as:

johnsoni johnsoni Viereck, changed status. Reduced to subsp. rank (teste Schuster, 1958, loc. cit. supra, p. 46).

Generic or subgeneric transfer and a change in status may be combined:

SPHAEROPHALMA subgenus PHOTOPSIS Blake

(=Photopsis Blake of Catalog, in part, pp. 753-756)

amphion (Fox). Transf. to Sphaeropthalma subg. Photopsioides Schuster.

*SPHAEROPHALMA subgenus PHOTOPSIOIDES Schuster

amphion amphion (Fox), changed status. Transf. from Photopsis Blake, p. 753 and reduced to subsp. rank (teste Schuster, 1958, loc. cit. supra, p. 38).

In the Aculeata, subgeneric assignment may be indicated by a citation to the subgeneric name in parentheses following the species entry:

robustior Cockerell (Eumelissodes)

In many entries here, the compiler of a particular section has not agreed with the taxonomic placement or nomenclature used in a publication by some other worker. This divergence of opinion is expressed by citing the publication under the placement or usage here considered to be preferable, followed by an indication of the different placement or nomenclature in parentheses. For example:

Genus EUPELMELLA Masi, p. 512

Nomenclature: Peck, 1963, loc. cit. supra, p. 492 (Macroneura).

In this Second Supplement the citations to the authorities for some changes, additions, or deletions have been shortened in order to save space. The references for new genera, subgenera, species, subspecies, and varieties are cited in full throughout, but frequently cited works may be referred to only by author, year, and page following the first reference. For instance, in the Ichneumonidae, Townes and Townes, 1960. U. S. Natl. Mus. Bul. 216 (Pt. 2): i-iv + 1-676 is, after its first citation, referred to as Townes and Townes, 1960, followed by particular page references. This has been done when this work is the authority for generic transfers, deletions, changes in status, or synonymy. References to discussions of biology, distribution, or taxonomy from this work are cited in the same way.

Elsewhere in this supplement frequently cited works may be cited as loc. cit. supra, where such usage will save space without producing ambiguity of reference. For instance, in the Symphyta, Middlekauff, 1958. Calif. Univ. Pubs., Ent. 14: 51-174 is cited completely under the Family PAMPHILIIDAE. Subsequently it is referred to as Middlekauff, 1958, loc. cit. supra, with the page reference, where it is the source for generic transfers, changes in status, deletions, synonymy, or discussions of biology, distribution, or taxonomy.

In this supplement, some changes, deletions, or additions are made on the authority of the individual who prepared a particular section. These entries include no citation to the literature or to personal communications from some other worker. For instance, in the Symphyta, Genus SIREX Linnaeus, p. 83 of the catalog, the information that areolatus (Cresson) is "Adventive in Eastern States, emerging from lumber" is teste B. D. Burks, although this last phrase does not appear in the text.

Subfamily COSMOPHORINAE

Placement of this group in the cyclostomine section of the Braconidae seems not to be tenable. The clypeus, while impressed, is not circularly emarginate as in cyclostomines, and in habits and larval structure the species resemble the Euphorinae. For the present the group is treated here as a distinct subfamily, but it is removed from the cyclostomine section of the family and placed after the Euphorinae. It may eventually need to be reincorporated in that subfamily.

Family ICHNEUMONIDAE

This second supplement of the Hymenoptera Catalog brings many changes, some of them complex, in the nomenclature of the Ichneumonidae. These changes have resulted from revisionary work in several subfamilies, and from a treatise of the type-species of the Foerster genera which were established originally without included species. In several instances, where the conclusions of two competent systematists differed and no specimens of the species involved were available, or no definitive characters given, the course followed was the one involving the least change.

The pagination for species in "Hymenoptera of Beulah, New Mexico," by H. L. Viereck, 1903 (February), Amer. Ent. Soc. Trans. 29: 43 (bottom)-100, differs in the separate (published March 20). In the latter, the article begins at the top of page 43 and ends on page 99. The description of a given species usually occurs one page earlier in the separate. The pagination of species listed in the Catalog is that of the separate except in the Second Supplement, where a few were changed before the reason was discovered.

The following revisions, when they occur in the text, are cited by author and date only because of frequency of occurrence, except that the complete reference is given for all new species and subspecies.

Type: Tryphon capitatus Cresson. Orig. desig.

The genus is one proposed by Townes (MS) for Laphyroskopus capitatus (Cresson), invalid type desig. for Laphyroskopus Foerster. His description follows:

Genus NANUM

Front wing 3.5 to 5.4 mm. long; clypeus separated from face by an impression, its profile weakly convex and apex broadly arcuate; mandibular teeth equal; junction of occipital and hypostomal carinae some distance above base of mandible; lateral ocellus separated from eye by about 2.5 its diameter; first flagellar segment about 1.55 as long as second; mesopleurum with a median longitudinal groove on only its hind $0.25 \pm$; notaulus faint and rather short, or absent. Propodeum without carinae, its profile rather weakly convex; tarsal claws short, sparsely pectinate; areolet absent; medulla strongly arched; nervellus vertical or inclivous, broken below the middle or sometimes not broken; first tergite rather short and broad, its dorsal profile weakly convex or almost flat, spiracle at the middle, its base without a dorsal pit, its dorso-lateral carina present to apex of glymma and sometimes present (but weak) between spiracle and apex; glymma rather short, deep, separated from glymma on opposite side by a translucent partition; thyridium absent; sides of tergites 2 and 3 curved under, at least in female not clearly separated from their rather narrow epipleura; male subgenital plate simple; tip of penis somewhat swollen, moderately decurved, its apex rounded; ovipositor sheath 0.35 to 0.6 as long as apical depth of abdomen, moderately wide; ovipositor straight, moderately stout, with a strong subapical dorsal notch; cercus like the head of a mushroom, much wider than long.

Type: Tryphon capitatus Cresson.

This is an American genus, with the type-species in the eastern part of the Nearctic Region, and an undescribed species each in Mexico and in Chile.

*Subfamily MICROCLEPTINAE

(= Plectiscinae of authors and Catalog, pp. 341-345, Sup. 1, p. 56)

Townes selected the name Microleptinae, from Microleptes, the oldest generic name, for Plectiscinae of authors. Unfortunately, Microleptes is a lapsus calami for Microleptes. In Gravenhorst's original description, the Greek word μικρολεπτης was incorrectly spelled μικρολεπτης and transliterated from the latter, but the meaning given was for the former, "furem rerum minutarum significante, quia hoc insectum minutum forsan non nisi larvas insectorum parvorum aggreditur." Paragraphs (a) (ii) and (c) of Article 32 of the International Rules apply here (see also Hopper, 1959. Ent. Soc. Wash. Proc. 61 (4): 166).

(symbiosis between saprolyphid mites and solitary vespid wasps).

Richards (1962) proposed dividing the Vespidae into three families.
In North America the Vespidae would include the social wasps (Vespinae, Polistinae and Polybiinae of the Catalog), and the solitary wasps would be assigned to the Eumenidae (Zethinae and Eumeninae of the Catalog) and the Masaridae (Masarinae and Euparagiinae of the Catalog).

apicatus (Banks). Prey: Xysticus sp.

Biology: Krombein, 1959. Ent. Soc. Wash. Proc. 61: 194.

borregoensis Evans. Calif. (Borrego). On flowers of Croton californicus.

Aporinellus borregoensis Evans, 1957. Pan-Pacific Ent. 33: 184, fig. 2. ♂, ♀.

bridwelli Evans. Prey: Oxyopes helius Chamb.

Biology: Evans, 1959. Kans. Ent. Soc. Jour. 32: 76.

completus Banks. Prey: Pellenes oregonensis Peck., Phidippus clarus Keys.

Biology: Krombein, 1961. Brooklyn Ent. Soc. Bul. 56: 63.

fasciatus (Smith). Prey: Tibellus duttoni (Hentz).

Taxonomy: Krombein, 1959, loc. cit. supra, pp. 194-195.

taeniatus taeniatus (Kohl). Prey: Pellenes sp.

Biology: Krombein, 1964. Amer. Mus. Novitates 2201: 13.

Pompilidae of Uncertain Position, p. 937

Pomipilus ephippiger Smith. Delete from North American fauna (teste Evans, 1963. Ent. Soc. Wash. Proc. 65: 108).

Pomipilus fiorentinii Dalla Torre. Transfer to synonymy of Evagetes ingenuus (Cresson), p. 925.

Pomipilus obscurus Dahlbom. Delete from North American fauna (teste Evans, 1963, loc. cit. supra, p. 108).

Superfamily SPHECOIDEA

Based primarily on a study of larvae, H. E. Evans (Ent. News 75: 225-237, 1964) proposed recognizing only the single family Sphecidae in this superfamily. He suggested regrouping the sphecid wasps into the following eight subfamilies:

Ampulicinae (= Ampulicidae of Catalog)

Sphecinae (= Sphecinae of Catalog)

Larrinae (= Larrinae, Trypoxyloninae and Crabroninae of Catalog)

Mellininae (= Mellinini of Catalog)

Pemphredoninae (= Pemphredoninae of Catalog)

Astatainae (= Astatainae of Catalog)

Philanthinae (= Philanthinae of Catalog)

Nyssoninae (= Nyssoninae of Catalog less Mellinini)

Family AMPULICIDAE

AMPULEX subgenus RHINOPSIS Westwood, p. 938

canaliculata Say.

Taxonomy: Evans, 1959. Ent. News 70: 57-58, 6 figs. (larva).

*DOLICHURUS subg. PARADOLICHURUS Williams

Dolichurus subg. Paradolichurus Williams, 1959. Wasmann Jour. Biol. 17: 299.

Type: Dolichurus (Paradolichurus) californicus Williams. By orig. desig. and monotypy.

Place after Dolichurus on p. 938.

californicus Williams. Calif. (San Diego Co.).

Dolichurus (Paradolichurus) californicus Williams, 1959. Wasmann Jour. Biol. 17: 300, figs. 1, 2, 4. ♀.

Family SPHECIDAE

Taxonomy: Evans, 1959a. Amer. Ent. Soc. Trans. 85: 168-189, text fig. 1 (keys to subfamilies and genera based on larval characters, and remarks on evolution and classification based on larval characters). —Evans, 1964. Amer. Ent. Soc. bigeloviae Cockerell and Fox. Western Tex. to Calif.; Mexico (Jalisco).

Taxonomy: Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 650, fig. 24.

boharti Parker. N. Mex., Ariz.

Astata boharti Parker, 1962. Ent. Soc. Amer. Ann. 55: 650, fig. 25. ♂, ♀.

clypeata Parker. East slope of Rocky Mts. in U. S.; Mexico (western mts.).

Astata clypeata Parker, 1962. Ent. Soc. Amer. Ann. 55: 651, figs. 15, 26. ♂, ♀.

femorata Parker. Ariz. (Peña Blanca in Santa Cruz Co.).

Astata femorata Parker, 1963. Pan-Pacific Ent. 39: 185, figs. 1-3, ♂.

leuthstromi Ashmead. Alaska, Canada, northern U. S., south in mts. to Ariz.

Nests in soil beneath vegetation. Prey: Immature Pentatomidae.

Biology: Evans, 1958b. N. Y. Ent. Soc. Jour. 65: 176-177.—Evans, 1962, loc. cit. supra, pp. 31-32.

Taxonomy: Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 648, fig. 22.

mexicana Cresson. Canada, U. S. and Mexico, west of Rocky Mts.

Astata mexicana Cresson, 1881. Amer. Ent. Soc. Trans. 9: Proc. p. v. ♂.

Taxonomy: Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 653, figs. 13, 28, 30, 34.

nevadica Cresson. Western North America, Canada to Mexico.

Taxonomy: Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 654, figs. 9, 10, 12, 16, 27, 31, 33.

nubecula bechteli Parker. Desert areas, Wash. and Colo., south to Calif. and Tex.; Mexico (Sonora).

Astata nubecula bechteli Parker, 1962. Ent. Soc. Amer. Ann. 55: 649. ♂, ♀.

nubecula nubecula Cresson, changed status. Northern U. S., south to Va. and Calif. (San Diego). Prey: Nymphs, Thyanta sp.

Astata (Astata) nubecula Cresson. Reduced to subsp. rank (teste Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 649).

occidentalis Cresson. Southern Canada, U. S.; Mexico (Michoacan, Baja California). Nests in soil devoid of vegetation. Prey: Adult and nymphal Pentatomidae.

Taxonomy: Evans, 1958a, loc. cit. supra, pp. 110-111, figs. 1-8 (larva).—Parker, 1962, loc. cit. supra, p. 651, figs. 8, 23.

The following index contains both superspecific and trivial names. Super-generic names are given in capital letters; valid names are shown in roman, synonyms in italic type.

Two entries are given to denote transfer of a form from one genus to another genus, the generic name from which transfer occurred appears in italics:

acuminata (Marl.), Phyllocolpa	22
acuminata (Marl.), Pontania	20

The same procedure is used for the entry of transfers from "Unrecognized Forms", "Uncertain Disposition", "Nomina Dubia" or "Nomina Nuda" to a genus or subgenus.

To denote transfer of a form from one subgenus to another in the same genus one entry is given with two page numbers where necessary. The same procedure is used to denote transfer of a form from a genus or subgenus to "Unrecognized Forms", "Uncertain Disposition", "Nomina Dubia" or "Nomina Nuda".
